SUBJECT: DCI Intelligence Assessment Briefing, re.,
PD/NSC 24 (S)

Recognizing that the threat assessments we had in-hand concerning the Soviet intercept activities against our domestic telecommunications were somewhat dated, I requested the DCI to conduct a current PD-24 Intelligence assessment. (S)

The substance of this assessment is now ready and will be briefed to the subcommittee at 1000 on June 8, 1979 in the White House Situation Room. This confirms my preliminary notice to you of this principals meeting. (U)

Due to the nature of the subject and its potential affect on the focus and direction of PD-24 activities, I have invited Dr. Brzezinski and Mr. Aaron; both have indicated that they will attend. (U)

Approximately an hour and a half is scheduled for the briefing and discussion. (U)

To accomodate these key persons who work the PD-24 issues for you, the DCI and Admiral Inman have agreed to provide this same assessment briefing to them; your people have already been notified of this arrangement.
